

Women's Business Exchange

Career Transition Group

A Career Transition Group was created for members to direct them with career transition issues in a safe and nurturing environment. This group will consist of 8-10 members and be guided by a skilled facilitator. Diane Kane is currently a successful career coach at the Washington Mutual Career Transition Center where she assists former "WaMulians" in finding new and meaningful work. Her method assists members in taking the "deep dive" into their own psyches to achieve a sense of clarity that will give them a distinct advantage in today's challenging job market. We are now accepting applications for this group to begin in early October, 2009.

Criteria for Selection

- Current member of WBE
- Willing to share personal and business objectives with peers
- Willing to receive coaching and feedback
- Willing to take action and report on results
- Committed to protecting the confidentiality of the group members
- Ready to break through self-imposed limitations to achieve greater success

Cost to Participate: $250 payable upon selection

Schedule

The group will meet once a week for 8 weeks beginning Tuesday, October 1, 2009.
